Turning to the account of man s creation as given in Genesis, we learn that not only was he created in the Divine image and likeness, but God formed him out of the dust of the ground, and then breathed into his nostrils the breath of (lives*) life, and man became a living soul (Gen. ii.7). Now it is evident upon the most cursory glance at this portion of the Word of God, that something more took place in man s creation than in that of the brute. If...
