As a whole the book is a most valuable contribution to our knowledge of the rivers of South America, especially of the Orinoco. It is dedicated to Mrs. Whitney, but for whose inspiring example this delayed record of the Call of the Red Gods would never have been submitted. The Flowing Road, by Caspar Whitney, with maps and photographs, 318 pages, $3.00 net, J. B. Lippincott Company, Philadelphia. More and more as the years progress children are receiving greater attention. Never in its history was our school system so criticised, analyzed and questioned. Since the day of Froebel we have had many great teachers who have shown us the importance of giving full attention to the growing child. Now we have the Montessori, the Ferrerer, the Tolstoy, and other methods of education, and the physiologist and...
