This book contains more than 450 recipes, all Americanized by the expert Rick Rodgers, but its real strength is as a reference. More than half of its pages are devoted to describing & explaining ingredients & kitchen tools & equipment. A multitude of photos illustrate 100s of ingredients & show important techniques such as cutting up chicken & paring out a globe artichoke bottom. This splendid cookbook-encyclopedia cooking reference is divided into three parts: I. The Purchase & Preparation of Food, II. Equipment, III. Recipes. Each of these 3 sections is completely cross-referenced & an extensive glossary provides precise definitions for all terms used throughout the book. This marvelous cookbook & cooking reference has already become a classic book for everyone interested...
