By Character Education Institution

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Character Education Methods The restriction of interest to public school methods does not mean that the Donor and the members of the Institution do not sympathize with the great service which private and church schools render the Nation, but it does mean that they appreciate the fact that the public school is the only public expression of direct interest on the part of all the people of the Nation in the preparation of the Nation s boys and girls for their life as citizens of the republic and of the states of which it is composed. In all fields of education, save that of religious education, which is assigned to the churches (each church furnishing in its own way the religious sanctions for conduct to its own children), the public schools should strive to be complete in their service; but the national system of public education is not now complete, because, while intellectual education is fairly well developed, vocational and physical education are only partly provided, and character education on human motives, covering the wisdom...
