Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Elder-Moderatorship: A Discussion of the Elder-Moderator Overtures This discussion grew out of declarations of Dr. Gray in answer to articles by Rev. Drs. Patterson and Ritchie, as well as the editors of the Herald and Presbyterian, defying us to meet him in the discussion of the Elder-Moderator Overtures on Scripture ground. After six articles had been published, it was agreed that the propositions to be discussed should be: I. Ruling elders and ministers are not of the same scriptural order, though they have some functions in common. II. It is inexpedient to adopt the overtures now before the Church concerning the eligibility of ruling elders to the moderatorship. I agreed to discuss the scriptural questions involved, although the Assembly, in submitting the overtures, did not intend any investigation or change of the Bible basis of our church polity. In defending our system, I have tried to show that Jesus Christ, the antitype of prophets, priests and kings of the Jewish Church, became, when on earth, the visible Head of the Church, claiming all power in...
