Finally discovering her mother s fate, Samantha insists on a risky detour to the nation s capital. Together, they must delve into the bowels of the city, with their survival depending on his loose moral compass and her stoic wit. After the attack on President Rosalyn Glass, Lincoln Pike finally seizes the reins of power. With hopes of returning the country to greatness, he initiates sweeping measures to rebuild colonies, establish a gold-based currency, and gain complete control of the military. Little do those around him realize that his inability to cope with a devastating loss has started him down a treacherous path toward madness.
