

How to Promote Children's Social and Emotional Competence (Paperback)

By Carolyn Webster-Stratton

Sage Publications Ltd, United Kingdom, 2000. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 230 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The book offer an interesting variety of concrete tools aimed at enhancing children's self esteem, as well as children's self control, and good behaviour. It values positive reinforcement, incentives and problem-solving modelling in a safe setting - International Journal of Children's Spirituality The book is full of sensible and practical ideas. The chapters are easy to access, and charts and illustrations are well used to support the ideas of the text. The author also weaves a strong value of partnership with parents, with some helpful scenarios about positive and negative ways for teachers to talk with fellow adults - Jennie Lindon, Nursery World This is a must-buy for teachers and other professionals working with children presenting with aggressive or other child behaviour problems. The book details the Dinosaur School curriculum for children (4 - 8 year olds) with social and problem-solving difficulties. The practical ideas would also be of great interest to parents. Inspirational read! - Andy Gill, Practical Parenting I found this to be a fun and practical book which, given Carolyn Webster-Stratton's research background and her...
