Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Exposure of the Malversations and Corruptions of the Executive Government of Congress As to the Congressional imbecility, reference will be more particularly had in another portion of this discussion, but in connection of the traditional odiousness to the American people of appointing members of Congress to Executive positions, which they now in many instances especially dishonor, what intelligent and right thinking citizen does not feel humiliated for his country by the fact, that a man of the feeble abilities, the mean and narrow views, the inflated, pompous manners and demagogical devices of a Washburne should, because of his attaching himself to the interests of a fortunate and remarkably pampered military chief, be elevated to the exalted station of Secretary of State, to give him a credential or an undeserved edat, to the end that he might not be utterly tabooed by the accomplished diplomats of Christendom, who are unfailingly designated by their governments for the conspicuous position of minister to the court of St. Cloud. Nor is this grave political offence of the administration of General Grant, at all mitigated by the fact that the scholar, historian, and experienced diplomat, Motley who has high name in circles of ministerial rank of all civilized nations should be thrust from position, out of a feeling of malevolence towards Senator Sumner, because of his opposing the acquisition of St. Domingo, under the circumstances of corruption which enveloped the scheme like a pall, and which seemed to the public sense to be of Executive knowledge, if not of aiding and abetting. It is to be remembered that Mr. Sumner, on the floor of the Senate, pointed to the hands...
