The publication is simple in go through preferable to fully grasp. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt: . . . in the proper county where the defendant may reside or have real estate, or where the real estate sought to be affected by the decree or judgment is situated; and the clerk receiving such transcript shall at once file for record, and shall record the same upon his judgment docket; and such judgment or decree shall be a lien upon real estate in the county where the transcript is filed, as if the same had been made or rendered in that county, etc. Moreover, part of the defendants to the original bill resided in Pulaski county--Rust and Martin, Johnsons administrator, and the administration of Johnsons estate, were in that county. This fact alone, had there been no real estate in Pulaski county to be affected in the suit, would, under the law as it then was, have given jurisdiction to the Pulaski chancery court. Hartsook did not originally seek that forum, but was brought there in this suit by due and regular process, and saw fit, as he had the right, to make his answer a cross-bill, that all his rights or supposed rights touching the controversy might be settled in and by that suit. Gonder would have had no right to dismiss his bill after the filing of the cross-bill of Hartsook, if he had so desired. See Sale and Wgfe v. McLean et al. . 2. 9 Ark, p. 61: 2, and cases cited. In that case this court approved and reiterated the...
