The Beam of Interest: Taken by Storm

By Christopher Garfield Allen

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 236 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. On Saturday 13th September 2014, the world is shaken to learn of the disastrous loss with all hands of the British Astute class nuclear attack submarine: HMS Armageddon off the West Coast of Scotland. With the vote for Scottish independence only days away, the Nationalists insist on the decommissioning of the naval facility at Faslane, thus calling the future of the United Kingdom independent nuclear deterrent into question and intensifying the debate for planetary disarmament. With so much at stake, the need is seen for fresh insights, for new ways of thinking. To this end, from around the world, a deeply committed group of people gathers for a residential like no other at Blenheim House on the outskirts of Sherwood Forest. Funded by a wealthy philanthropist, the property is equipped with specialized technology and staffed with instructors of the highest calibre. The intention is to take candidates to the very limit of their physical, psychological and spiritual endurance and beyond. Despite his initial misgivings, a senior student Michael Stapleton eventually agrees to represent the School of Consciousness Studies in a struggle towards the goal...

Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite publications. Indeed, it actually performs, still an amazing and interesting literature. It has been printed in an exceptionally easy way which is merely soon after I finished reading this book where it really altered me, changed the way I believe.

Most of these ebooks are the perfect publication accessible. It is written in easy terms and not difficult to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
