And did you come to take me home? And are they all well? He sat down, and took her on his knee, and looked so satisfied, so happy, that she forgot he had not answered her questions. There are not many such children! he thought. Mr. and Mrs. Whittier and Helen now joined them, and there was a great deal of talking, and laughing, and rejoicing; yet Lucy s oft-repeated question, Have you come to take me home? was not answered. Give your father a little peace, said her uncle, at last; you do nothing but cross-question him. Don t you know it is rude to ask people what they have come for, and how long they re going to stay? Lucy smiled and held her peace, satisfied that all was right that her father did; and...
